Q. Tell us about your company.

A. Petra & Holum is a custom manufacturer of a broad variety of packaging, promotional, presentation kits and contract sewing. We offer unparalleled flexibility with numerous production options and fast turnarounds. We have 75 employees and operate in an 80,000 square foot facility just west of downtown Chicago, IL. Our central location near major highways and airports allows us to handle national and international distribution efficiently and effectively.

Q. What is your specialty?

A. We offer custom product development. We manufacture rigid boxes, sales kits, sewn bags, cases, RF heat sealing. We also do die-cutting/scoring of rigid materials to produce binders, marketing totes, fan decks and headers.

Q. What is your favorite kind of project to do?

A. Petra & Holum loves to delight clients with award-winning solutions that help them better connect with their customers.

Q. What has been your most memorable project?

A. NBC's Indy500 Influencer Boxes filled with milk bottles and chocolate bricks sent to influences across the country. Seeing our boxes shared across social media and on TV was amazing.

Q. What's new at your company?

A. Last year we merged two companies: Petra Manufacturing, which was 85 years old, merged with Holum and Sons, which also was 85 years old. At the start of 2019, we added an Esko Digital cutting plotter and CAD software for product development and virtual prototyping.

Q. When should another member call you for help?

A. When clients need custom packaging or contract industrial sewing, Petra & Holum is here to help.
