GLGA's Women [in] Print Proudly Present the First Woman in Print Excellence Award

This sought after female-specific award supports our ongoing quest to recognize the contributions of women in the Midwest print, graphic arts, finishing and print packaging community as well as those women who support the print industry in a vendor or supplier capacity.

Eligibility

Any woman working directly in print or in a vendor role supporting print who is in good standing with her company in the states of Illinois, Indiana or Wisconsin. Any level or title of employee is eligible.

Process

Anyone (female or male) can nominate a candidate by completing the accompanying Nomination Form and emailing it to Debra Warner at dwarner@glga.info or faxing it to 262-522-2211.

A nomination fee of $29 needs to be included with the nomination form.

A panel of female print professionals outside of the Midwest will judge the nominations and select a winner(s). Their decision is final.

Winner(s) will be announced in late August and celebrated at the Graphics Excellence Award Celebrations in Chicago and Milwaukee on September 30, 2021.

Eligibility Criteria - What Makes a Great Nominee – Consider the Following:

Passion for print and anything resembling print. This might include activities like recruiting new females into the print industry, volunteering for training, etc. Include examples if appropriate.

Mentoring – a focus on helping other women grow in their organization or advance their career goals. Those who are making an impact in the lives of women in print.

Experience in a print organization or in a vendor/supplier who supports print.

Community Advocacy – how does she support and/or advocate for print away from work (designing sports flyers, volunteering in service organizations, supporting sustainability, etc.)

Deadline

All nominations are due by July 30, 2021. Incomplete nominations will be disqualified. Please direct questions to Debra Warner at dwarner@glga.info or Sharon Flick at sflick@glga.info.

Please pass this recognition information down through your organization!
